

Discontinuous boundary value problems of generalized analytic vectors for angular domains in the plane

G. Akhalaia

On the basis of general representation of regular solutions of the matrix elliptic systems, the so-called generalized analytic vectors, the discontinuous boundary value problems of Riemann-Hilbert and linear conjugation are considered in angular domains in the plane.