

About numerical solving of contact problem for Poissons and Kirchhoff equation system

A.Papukashvili

In this paper it is studied some “bridge-form” multystructure having complicated geometry stress-deformed state. Particularly it is considered boundary-contacted problem: two rectangle form membrane is united by string; We consider classic linear boundary problems for membranes, but for string nonlinear type integro-differencial equation.