Green's Function for the Light Scattering Equations

Dazmir Shulaia

Abstract.

The aim of this paper is to construct Green's Function in infinite medium for the light scattering equation. To this end the method of spectral resolution of the solutions by the eigenfunctions of the corresponding characteristic equation is used.