Some results concerning geometrical realizations of families of sets

In our talk several of our theorems related to geometrical realizations of families of sets are presented. Also, some of their applications are shown. Special attention is paid to finite families of sets and their planar and special realizations.