Absolutely Nonmeasurabel Functions with Good Descriptive Properties

Mariam Beriashvili

Tbilisi State University
I.Vekua Institute of Applied Mathematics
Tbilisi, Georgia
E-mail: mariam_beriashvili@yahoo.com

The concept of non-measurability of real-valued functions with respect to various classes leads us to the notion of an absolutely non-measurable function. Our presentation is dedicated to the absolutely non-measurable functions and we discuss their descriptive structure.
In particular, it will be shown that there exists an absolutely non-measurable function acting from [0,1] into [0,1] whose graph is a projective subset of $[0,1]^2$.